

WINE BAR OF THE YEAR

Gazebo Wine Garden, Sydney

2 Elizabeth Bay Road, Elizabeth Bay
Phone: 02 9357 5333

Keystone Hospitality (theloft & bungalow 8, The Fringe Bar, Cargo) opened their latest concept in the circumferential ground floor of the landmark Gazebo Hotel building, with Dale Jones-Evans on design duties. Co-owner and licensee Paul Schulte has appointed Ross Eckersley (ex-41, Bathers Pavilion) as the chef in charge of the weekly alternating, seafood-heavy menu and Clint Hillery (Altitude, Wildfire) as sommelier and Kharim Gharbi (Industrie South of France) as maitre'd. As the name suggests, the central pillar of this concept is wine, with over 350 wines on offer and the Enomatic system allowing many of these to be offered by the glass or half glass, matched to different dishes. The environment is part theatrical fantasy, part knockabout Parisian brasserie and has proved popular with all ages of wine lover.
